

Our "Inner" Power

Sample Symbol Chart
Pauline Karen Smith
August 15, 1942

Disclaimer: This is a sample chart. All services are for entertainment purposes only.

Life Path 3

The Empress is sitting out doors on her throne of cushions and beside her you will notice a shield with the Venus symbol of love. In her right hand, she holds up the symbol of the world and beside her you will notice a closed lotus. She wears the crown topped with twelve stars and is surrounded by trees and wheat, from the forest, you can see a water fall that flows under her throne.

The Empress represents our joy of life and perhaps if we are passionate enough she will help us bring to life our manifestations. She reminds us that it is through our love of life that we learn to see and love the world fully without any reservations.

The Throne

When we look at the Empress one of the things we notice is that she is sitting on a cushioned throne and if you look closer, you will notice that her cushions have the symbol of Venus. Which may suggest that they cushion us from the harsh reality of our lives when our attitude is of joyous and love? The Empress throne represent above all passion which we expressed through our actions, thoughts, and emotions, so you say that the keys to our success is through our self-expression.

The Crown

All crowns are the symbols of achievements, victory, or mastery in any field of endeavor. The laurel is the symbol of victory which is divinely supported by the twelve stars, which represents the twelve signs of the zodiac. It may suggest that through our communication it enables us to share what we have learnt with others that are less knowledgeable. Above all, it represents the richness of lives through our openness it connects us to the universal wisdom of the twelve signs which in reality are within us.

The Heart Shield

The shield represents Venus which is the planet of love we must realize there is no passion without love- to love life is to see beauty in all things. Our greatest happiness is in loving and being loved and it is an absolute necessity for us to be emotional involved as it teaches us to be compassionate about our own lives. When ever we are inspired, it is through our love and enthusiasm that enables us to see things through to fruition. Notice that the shield is in the shape of a heart which may suggest that we should protect ourselves from becoming too sensitive as it can easily drain us of our joy of life.

The Water Falls

The water is a symbol of our emotions and if you look closer, you will notice that it comes from the forest and flows under her throne which suggests the constant running of our thoughts and emotions from our subconscious mind. As it flows, it nourishes everything which means that the new growth can transform our lives depending on how we nurture them. It suggests that if we're not careful, our emotions can lead us down a rocky demise so therefore we must learn to control the flow of our emotions.

Vowels 3

You are a joy which makes you a wonderful person to hang out with. You will have no shortage of friends because you enjoy socializing with all sorts of people. You have excellent communication skills and there are times when you add a little color to the truths of your stories. Being an entertainer you are a sought after guest at any party or gathering for you have a natural ability to help others relax. You are kind and generous and you have no problem sharing your time or worldly good with all those that need a helping hand. Your soul's desire is to be free so you can mingle with all types of interesting people. You delight in sharing the joys of life with others.

Belts

The belts are about our intuitions and time every one of us has the ability to tap into and discover the unknown aspects of ourselves and it is through following our intuitions that we are able to get a glimpse into this unknown reality. As we grow we evolve gracefully in the knowing that all things are possible when we connect to the spirit. Also they represent the passing of time and our limitations to stay open ensure a path that takes us beyond the routine of our daily lives.

Boots

The boots help to keep us grounded so that we are able to manifest our material desires. Whether we want material things or money the more grounded we are the easier it is to attract more of the same. It is important to be patient when it comes to your long range goals because it takes time to manifest them. When we are grounded it helps us to build a secure and stability foundation which will protect us against the harshness of life. Also be thankful of the financial abundance you have for it a gift from the earth.

Hat

Hats symbolize our passions, thoughts, knowledge and depending on our state of consciousness we can go beyond the limits of our own reality. As we adventure out the level of our consciousness expands which reflects the development of our self-awareness. The more aware we are the more we are able to tap into the power of the universe in creating our own manifestations. Therefore you only need to believe in your own manifestations and the door to your own knowledge will be open to you.

Garments

Garments represent our incarnation in the physical body and a willingness to live on earth. When we came we had an understanding that we would be guided by our soul's desires. When our lives are balanced between mind and body our lives are more enjoyable we are more natural, adventurous, life becomes a joy. Garments also are the soul protection for without clothes we may feel more sensitive to the ailments that surround us

Personality 2

You are someone that is compassionate and kind always willing to help all those that need a helping hand. You enjoy the simple things in life going for walks, working in the garden and also you enjoy collecting knickknacks of all sorts. You believe in fairness which enables you to see both sides of any given situation. You are an excellent hostess/host for you love to create a homely and harmonious atmosphere for your friends and family. Your diplomacy and tact are a wonderful quality which insures that you will always be a welcomed guest at any gathering. It is through your natural desires of harmony and peace that life will provide you with all the things that you desire for.

Thrones

All thrones stand for maturity and mastery over their own domain our attitude and beliefs form the foundation of our reality. You will notice that on the back of the throne there are pears which may suggest our fruitful abundance and nourishment. On the arm of the throne there is a goat's head which is the symbol of Capricorn. Laying our life's foundation is easier when we break our far reaching goals down into smaller achievements by making them smaller we tend to stay more focused and committed.

Roses

The rose is a long standing symbol of passion, promise, and beauty of life and at the same time, we must remember the thorns for we may have to endure a few stings along the ways. It is through our passion that determines our growth by the promise of new beginning so that we are able to look at life with a sense awe and wonder. The rose ensures a destiny of great powers when we are passionate about our goals in seeing them through to the end.

Rabbit

The rabbit symbolizes our flexibility often when circumstances arise we tend to struggle against the forces of nature. When ever we allow ourselves to live in the present it helps to keep us grounded for the rabbit lives close to earth. Also the rabbit is very social which may suggest the importance of our family and friends. Our journey through life is easier when we keep our energies balanced between physical and unphysical worlds. The rabbit may suggest that our richness is through the simplicity of our lives.

Landscape

The landscape represents our growth and spiritual unfolding meaning our openness to life. When we allow ourselves to open up we receive the light of love, joy and compassion into our lives. Our life obstacles and challenges are easier to overcome because we have surrounded ourselves with nature beauty. As we take in the sweet smell of the flowers and the freshness of the greenery everything that was in a dormant state will sprout new growth, ideas, and change through our enthusiasm for life.

Whole Name 6

Your home and family will play an important role in your life therefore don't let it take too much of your energy. You enjoy the responsibility of doing for others as it gives you a sense of belonging. Others see you as fair and honest so don't be surprised when your friends ask you for advice because they know you will tell it as it is. Try and surround yourself with beauty and harmony as it will help you to establish a peaceful atmosphere wherever you go. You make a wonderful partner because one of your greatest joys is making others feel loved and looked after. You realize that no reward is needed for everything you do because abundance comes to you continually

Armor

When ever we think of armor, we tend to think of warriors and in order for them to survive any battles; they needed to protect themselves from injuries. You will notice that the armory is only showing on his one leg and foot rests upon armadillo which represents that he has fought many battles and that he has his life under control. It also helps to encourage you when you feel vulnerable in times of struggles by grounding yourself to the stability of your inner reality it protect you from the harsh realities of life.

Throne

All thrones stand for maturity and mastery over their own domain the solid structure of the throne represents our life's foundation. You will notice that the throne is decorated with bull's heads which represent the earth sign of Taurus. When we are willing to dedicate ourselves, it gives us a sense of order, discipline which teaches us to be more responsible through the choices we make. Mastery of one's life comes to those who have achieved the highest standards within in their own reality.

Pentacle

Many people think the Pentacle stands for money, but they represent much more. They represent our subconscious mind everything is reflected by the way you handle your day to day situations. They also represent our thoughts and beliefs for everything you think or believe will eventually show it self through the energies that you send out. They help us to understand the material aspects of our lives how we handle our money reflects our security and our future prosperity.

Towns

Towns represent centers or gathering of people, thoughts, ideas or energies. You will notice that he sits within his castles wall which may suggest that he is protecting the wealth that he has built for himself. It takes many years and hard work to obtain material wealth and as your success grows you will start to rely more on the support and co operation of others in order to keep the abundance that you have attained. One must remember wealth is attained through a group effort and not the self.

This is a small sample of the Tarot Symbol Chart you also receive many other pages on your Future, Success, Birthday, Life Lessons, goal commitment plus a nine month forecast that will guide you on your Careers, Home, Relationships, Finance